

	Blue Dogwood	Durham Food Hall	Morgan Street Food Hall	Transfer East
Website	www.bluedogwood.com	durhamfoodhall.com/	www.morganfoodhall.com	www.transferoldeeast.com
Location	Downtown Chapel Hill 306 W. Franklin Street, Chapel Hill 27516	The Reuse Arts District at Lakewood Shopping Center	411 West Morgan Street, Raleigh, NC	500 E Davie St. Raleigh, NC 27601
Open Date	Spring 2017	Fall 2017	Fall 2017	Fall 2017
Spots	15+	7-10	60+	11
Target Business and how to contact or apply	Community-minded fresh food vendors and food artisans who make prepared food to eat on-site or take out as well as retail vendors who make unique local food products. Interested businesses Review information on becoming a vendor on our website which lists the steps to becoming a vendor. email:kelly@bluedogwood.com	Chefs and Restaurateurs looking for <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - space to showcase and test new and inventive food concepts and expand their current offerings - their first brick and mortar location with lower investment and risk than opening and operating a stand alone restaurant - expansion opportunities to gain a presence in the Durham market - an opportunity to be part of a like-minded community of talented chefs Interested businesses Fill out an application on our website. email: adair@durhamfoodhall.com	The general vision for the food offerings will be a series of stalls and shops offering high quality, chef-driven specialty foods with a wide range of diversity. Some establishments will be a cooked-to-order mentality, while others are specialized offerings in a market setting. Each stall will offer a limited number of highly specialized and targeted culinary offerings, artisanal and local in design and execution, with affordable prices typically found in food halls serving food counter-style.	Housed in the historic Carolina Coach Garage and Shops Warehouse, a five minute walk from Fayetteville Street, Transfer Co. offers 42,000 Square Feet of renovated space for food producers, makers, vendors, restaurateurs, their guests, and the local community. We want you to help us build it. it.
Costs	$600 - 1000/mo depending on square footage	Please contact for more information.	Vary based on the sq ft.	Vary based on the sq ft.